The Holidays have come and gone and now to get you excited about all the great things that are happening here at Desert Gardens during the month of January.

Our GRAND OPENING is scheduled for the weekend of Jan 18/19. There will be lots of special things going on that weekend, so be sure and check out all the events.

Coffee and Muffins will be available in the Activities Building every Wednesday morning at 8:30 – cost $1.

Horseshoes is every Tuesday and Thursday – come out and give it a try.

Stained Glass is going strong – Iris is the lead so talk to her if you want to get involved. Be sure to sign the release form

Woodshop - some folks are working on their own projects. If you would like to take the lead in this area – see Joyce or Nona. A release form must be signed before using any equipment in the wood shop.

Our crocheting project for January – crocheting plastic bags into a purse. Now at last something to do with all those extra plastic bags that are lying around.

Beading class is on Tuesday mornings – either Edie or Iris will instruct depending on which project you would like to work on.

Donna is back so Line Dancing will be taught on Tuesday and Wednesday mornings at 10:30.

January 9th – at the coffee hour bring your fire extinguisher up and get it checked. There will a charge for getting it charged. Sign up in Activities Bldg.

January 23rd – at the coffee hour there will be a Maintaining Your RV Seminar.

Tag-a-longs (Please sign up – check the bulletin board)

Jan 5 – 10am Fiddler & Bluegrass Jamboree, Arts & Crafts Bazaar, Car Show & Tractor Pull – Pinal County Fairgrounds

Jan 11 – 11am Florence Museum and Lunch at LBs ($4 plus lunch)

Jan 25 – 9am Quilt, Craft & Sewing Festival, Phoenix Fairgrounds ($8)

Jan 30 – 9:30am Boyce Thompson Arboretum Tour and Lunch at Café Petera ($6 plus lunch)
